Tango Cruise South America 2018

Reisebeschreibung

In March 2018, this will be our 11th tango cruise from Buenos Aires to Chile!

Our starting point for this marvellous journey is Buenos Aires. Together we can attend Milongas held nightly in this cosmopolitan city. In addition to being considered the “birthplace of Tango”, Buenos Aires is rich in charm and culture. Enjoy a city walk through the picturesque districts of San Telmo and La Boca or shop in the trendy Palermo Viejo area. We can spend three nights in a comfortable 4-star hotel in the centre of Buenos Aires (March 2nd – 5th) and then we will check-in on board the luxurious cruise ship “Infinity”: our home away from home! We stay one more day & night in Buenos Aires while enjoying all our cruise ship has to offer! The next evening, we head north to Montevideo and Punta del Este with its beautiful beaches. Our "once in a lifetime" cruise adventure begins ...

The highlight will no doubt be cruising around the legendary Cape Horn, the southernmost point of the continent. We will witness the amazing sight of numerous penguin colonies near Puerto Madryn and the Chilean Fjords with its jagged walls and mammoth glaciers, known as some of the most magnificent fjords in the world – truly an everlasting travel experience!

In the ports of Puerto Montt in Chile, Ushuaia and the Tierra del Fuego National Park, where mountain and sea merge together, our aim is to explore Patagonia - one of the most unique places on earth.

Of course, you will also have plenty of time to relax and savor the ambience of the ship with its many amenities.

TANGO: you will have the opportunity to build on your Tango skills by attending the tango classes, which are held on board in small groups with Adriana Duré (Buenos Aires) and Felipe Martinez (San Francisco). Of course, Milongas compliment this extraordinary cruise. Private lessons can also be arranged.

What can one say about this cruise? This is a once in a lifetime experience!
